REPORT

ON "MECHANIC WEBSITE"

ANIMESH KUMAR SINGH

SJCIT | Dept. of CSE

OVERVIEW

This project " Mechanic " is a garage website which is designed mainly using HTML, CSS and BOOTSTRAP. This website mainly highlights the services provided by the Mechanic garage. It is designed to provide the people to reach the garage easily. It provides a user friendly interface to register their vehicles for repairing in addition it also provides a contact form which include queries, complaints and general enquiries. Mechanic garage provide the best quality service at a very reasonable price and quick deliveries and repair your car door to door in no time.

GOALS

- The main goal is to save the customer's time by having all the work online.
- To provide a variety of quality services at a reasonable cost.
- To provide a service of door-to-door pickup and delivery of cars.
- To provide the customers a facility to register their vehicle to garage for repairing or any other service easily by online registration.

SPECIFICATIONS

We are providing customers a great experience by providing quality images of the services we are providing. A beautiful navbar is designed with the help of BOOTSTRAP which links to the different pages. Different pages are designed for different sections: home page is the default page of the website, contact page is designed for the users to send their query and general enquiry, registration page is designed for users to easily register their vehicles, about page provides the information about us, services page is designed to display all the services provides by us to the customers. Proper usage of forms for registration, contact and queries provide a customer a simple way to reach us. The proper usage of text colors and CSS stylesheets give customers a great viewing experience. A beautiful logo of Mechanic garage is also designed and provided in the navbar of the website which uniquely identifies us.

<h1>Services</h1>

<section id = "header">
 We understand the importance of your time and pain that you undergo to get your car serviced,to make your life easy. The Mechanic services you cars assuring low costs while maintaining quality standards. You will no longer have to pay extra due to lack of knowledge or the car service provider up-selling vehicle parts / services.

  <h5>

   Day Service (8 am - 10 am)

 </h5>

     We are available even during the day hours! The list of our day services are suited for any of your car service or repair needs.

     Not only we do the service and repairs we also provide car care and other services to offer convenience in all aspects.

  <h5>

   Periodic Service

 </h5>

     The Mechanic is the first automotive service provider in India that operates in night hours, we work round the clock to give you a smooth driving experience.

     You can easily book a service request through our website to avail the night service before 2 pm,

the car will be picked by us before 10 pm the same day after which we assess and share the service estimate.

The service will start upon price confirmation. Once the service is complete we will drop the car to your location, or you can pick it from the service station. At few service stations, we currently don't offer pressure wash during night hours due to logistics issues however we are working on this to further enhance your experience, our representative will let you know if pressure wash is unavailable.

RESULT

SERVICES

We understand the importance of your time and pain that you undergo to get your car serviced,to make your life easy. The Mechanic services you cars assuring low costs while maintaining quality standards. You will no longer have to pay extra due to lack of knowledge or the car service provider up-selling vehicle parts / services.

Day Service (8 am - 10 am)

We are available even during the day hours! The list of our day services are suited for any of your car service or repair needs. Not only we do the service and repairs we also provide car care and other services to offer convenience in all aspects.

Periodic Service

The Mechanic is the first automotive service provider in India that operates in night hours, we work round the clock to give you a smooth driving experience. You can easily book a service request through our website to avail the night service before 2 pm, the car will be picked by us before 10 pm the same day after which we assess and share the service estimate.

The service will start upon price confirmation. Once the service is complete we will drop the car to your location, or you can pick it from the service station. At few service stations, we currently don't offer pressure wash during night hours due to logistics issues however we are working on this to further enhance your experience, our representative will let you know if pressure wash is unavailable.
